

Taylor Choirs take NYC!

CARNEGIE HALL

Haydn: Lord Nelson Mass

New York City

January 16-20, 2010

The choirs of James E Taylor H.S. travel to New York City to sing a concert with other singers in the famed Carnegie Hall. Josef Haydn's masterpiece "Lord Nelson Mass" will be presented in mass choir with orchestra and guest soloists, Tuesday evening, January 19. Taylor's head choir director Kevin Riehle, will conduct.

Trip includes concert package with Distinguished Concerts of New York International, hotel, airfare, transfers, attractions such as Empire State building, Metropolitan Museum of Art, a Broadway show, sightseeing, and lots of memorable experiences to last a lifetime.

Trip Cost—$1500

DCINY—$590

Airfare—$350

Broadway Show—$70

Empire State—$14

Meals—$100

Hotel—$159 Transfers—$50

2nd Show OR Concert—$70

Metropolitan Museum of Art—$14

PAYMENT SCHEDULE:

June 4, initial deposit—$250

August 1—$250

October 1—$250

July 1—$250

September 1—$250

November 1—$250 + any additional cost